

SPRING AWAKENING!

Finger Lakes Region

Wednesday, May 8, 2019

8:00am Depart Utica –In front of parking garage next to Delta Hotel
8:30am Depart Rome– Freedom Plaza – 205 Erie Boulevard

Travel to the beautiful Finger Lakes region of New York and check out some of nature's finest. A break stop is made at Sauder's Market for a visit to the café or a quick bit of shopping. At Montezuma National Wildlife Refuge the birds will be making their way through during spring migration. The Visitors Center has exhibits and a Nature Shop to explore. A trek through the wildlife drive offers a chance to see a variety of birds and waterfowl.

Lunch is included at Ramada Geneva Lakefront. Please select: Grilled Chicken Sandwich, Quiche of the day, or Reuben Sandwich. (Meal choice required with reservation).

This afternoon experience the Seneca White Deer tour at the former Seneca Army Depot. This is home to the world's largest white, white-tailed deer herd. We'll have the opportunity to learn their fascinating story as well as see remains of the U.S. Army's former weapons storage facility. Cap off the day with a wine tasting at Swedish Hill Winery.
